

#LoveOurRivers

Many of the rivers in South Wales start their life in Bannau Brycheiniog. Our rivers are an important habitat for wildlife. People also depend on our rivers for health, wellbeing and enjoyment. Unfortunately, some of our rivers are in crisis because of pollution from phosphates, sewage and litter.

We are on a mission to save our rivers but we need your help! What small steps could you take to protect our rivers and to improve water quality?

Empty rounded rectangular box for writing.

Empty rounded rectangular box for writing.

Empty rounded rectangular box for writing.

Empty rounded rectangular box for writing.

